HOWDY FOLKS!

THANK YOU FOR THE FINE LETTERS AND ORDERS FROM THE LAST ISSUE. WE'VE GOT A BIGGER LISTING THIS MONTH TO GO THROUGH. WE RECEIVED GOOD RESPONSE ON EVERY CATEGORY WE LISTED AND ACTIVE BIDDING ON THE AUCTION.

THE PICTURE ABOVE IS A "FISH EYE VIEW" OF OUR SHOP IN WONDERLAND. THE STORE ISN'T REALLY ROUND BUT I'M NOT SURE ABOUT THE CAMERA THAT TOOK THE PICTURE. IF YOU CAN MAKE US OUT, MR. WARNER IS AT THE RIGHT. THAT'S ME LEFT OF CENTER. IF YOUR TRAVELS BRING YOU TO OUR FAIR CITY, COME IN AND SEE US. OUR NEW AUCTION AND DISPLAY AREA IS INDICATED BY THE ARROW AT LEFT OF PICTURE.

THIS HAS BEEN A BUSY WEEK FOR COIN COLLECTORS. THE GOVERNMENT HAS LIFTED THE RESTRICTION ON PRE 1933 GOLD COINS--WE CAN NOW BRING IT INTO THE COUNTRY WITH NO TROUBLE. THE MELT BAN HAS BEEN LIFTED ON U.S. SILVER COINS. THIS COULD BE GOOD OR BAD FOR THE COLLECTOR. IF THE SILVER SUPPLY SHRINKS CAUSING A GREATER INCREASE IN SILVER PRICES, MANY POTENTIALLY SCARCE U.S. COINS COULD BE MELTED ALONG WITH THE COMMON ONES. MINT FIGURES MAY NO LONGER BE A GUIDE AS TO VALUE. SINCE NO DATE RECORDS HAVE OR WILL BE KEPT AS TO WHAT DATES ARE BEING MELTED, SOME SURPRISE SLEEPERS COULD CROP UP IN THE FUTURE. THE LATEST NEWS I'VE HEARD IS THAT THE TREASURY HAS FINALLY FOUND A WAY TO SELL THE MILLIONS OF SILVER DOLLARS THEY HAVE. I DON'T KNOW THE DETAILS YET BUT I HOPE I GET MY SHARE.

THE LOWEST FORM OF VERMIN IN MY BOOK IS THE LEACH WHO USES A DEALERS SHOP TO MAKE HIS OWN DEALS AND CONTACTS IN. THEY COME IN MANY DIFFERENT TYPES BUT NONE OF THEM ARE ANY GOOD FOR DEALER OR HOBBY.

THE STORE DEALER IS A VERY IMPORTANT BROKER BETWEEN THE BUYER + SELLER OF A COLLECTORS ITEM. THE DEALER HAS VERY HEAVY OVERHEAD IN THE FORM OF RENT, SALARIES, ADVERTISING, FIXTURES, EQUIPMENT TO MENTION A FEW. THE IDEA, AS OLD AS HISTORY ITSELF, IS FOR THIS DEALER TO MAKE A PROFIT ABOVE THIS OVERHEAD TO LIVE ON. (I'M NO EXCEPTION).

THE VERMIN I SPEAK ABOUT COME IN DIFFERENT TYPES BUT THEY ALL BLEED PROFIT FROM THE DEALER. THE MAIN TYPE IS THE VEST POCKET DEALER WHO WILL HANG AROUND THE SHOP UNTIL HE SEES A GOOD CUSTOMER. HE WILL WAIT, FOLLOW THE BUYER OUT, THEN MAKE HIS PITCH. HE SHOWS HIS WARES, FROM HIS CAR, TO THE CUSTOMER. THIS TYPE IS GENERALLY A SHADY MERCHANT OF OVERPRICED ITEMS BUT THE BUYER (THINKING THE GRASS IS GREENER ON THE OTHER SIDE) BUYS.

THIS TYPE HAS NO OVERHEAD---JUST PROFIT. IF A BUYER
BOUGHT A BOGUS COIN, ITS TOO LATE. THE SELLER IS LONG
GONE TO ANOTHER AREA OR STORE. ANOTHER TYPE HANGS
AROUND CASUALLY HANDING OUT BUSINESS CARDS TO A
DEALERS CUSTOMER (WHILE HE'S NOT LOOKING) THE CARD
IS AN INVITE TO THIS "COLLECTORS" HOUSE TO "SWAP".
THE NEXT TYPE, GENERALLY A "ONE SHOT" DEAL WATCHES
FOR A PARTICULARLY RARE OR CHOICE COLLECTION TO SHOW
UP FOR SALE. WHILE THE DEALER IS NEGOTIATING, THIS GUY BRAZENLY INTRODUCES HIMSELF TO THE SELLER AND QUICKLY DELIVERS THE MESSAGE THAT HE, AS A "COLLECTOR"
CAN PAY MORE. BY THIS POINT, THE DEAL IS RUINED. OF COURSE HE CAN PAY MORE. HE HAS NO OVERHEAD TO PAY.
THE "MORE" HE PAYS (ONCE HE GETS HIS WAY) IS MANY TIMES
MUCH LESS BY PICKING THE NICE ITEMS AND LEAVING THE SELLER WITH WHAT NO ONE WILL BUY UNLESS IT WAS PART OF THE ENTIRE LOT. THE MOST RECENT TYPE I CAUGHT HAD A SMALL TAPE RECORDER IN HIS COAT TO CATCH NAMES, LEADS AND ADDRESSES FROM CONVERSATIONS AND PHONE CALLS.
THIS GUY SHOULD HAVE HIS EARDRUMS PIERCED WITH CIVIL WAR CANNON BALLS HANGING FROM THEM.

IF ANY OF YOU VERMIN WISH TO DEFEND YOURSELVES,
LET ME KNOW! I'LL BE GLAD TO PRINT IT.

YOURS TRULY,
Stan Rupert

COMIC CORNER

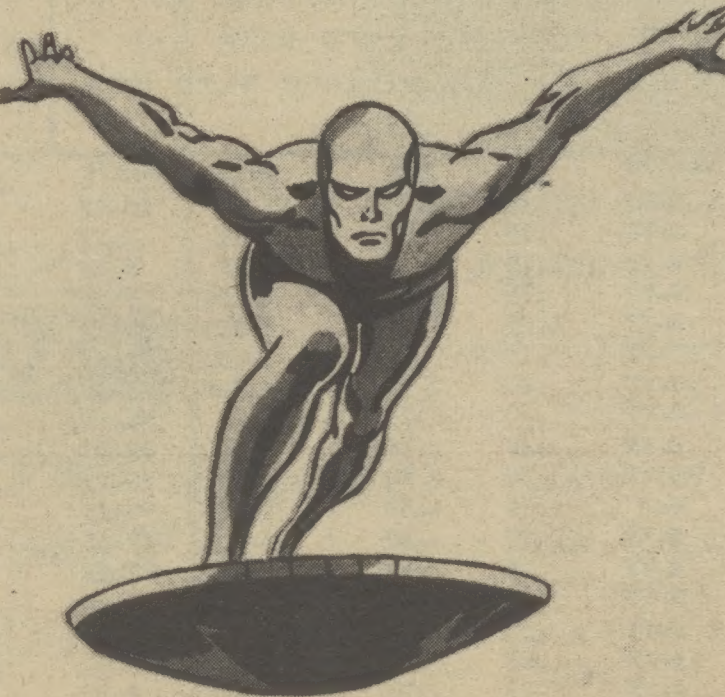

Featured this month are more of the ever popular "MARVEL" series. We have listed most of the new titles this time, so fill in your sets while they are still cheap. The titles chosen are different from the group listed in the COMIC CORNER Vol. 1 issue #1. That untitled listing in the first paper (MARVELS); It was supposed to be DAREDEVIL. Our mistake. All comics listed are average good to fine condition complete with both covers unless otherwise stated. As always second choice should be given wherever possible as some issues are in short supply.

Foreign Minor

Prices are for one or ten coins as listed by types in average or better condition for the date of the coin ie; early coins will be in Good to Very Good, while recent coins will be from XF to Unc. Grades listed as a guide.

Coins are listed by Yeoman "Y" numbers "Coins of the World" (Brown Book) $5.00.

All per 10's are priced at a fair wholesale price - generally 25% to 50% of retail.

Quantity is limited on many items so order early and please give second choice

It is very difficult to accumulate a selection this large.

These prices effective until current stock is depleted.

IDEAL FOR: Filling in dealer stock, scratch boxes, coin club auctions, price lists, trade stock, bidboard lots, study of varieties, investment clubs, increase variety in retail shops (important for impulse sales). Part time dealers. NOTE: We will mount coins in 2X2 holders with description for an added 7¹/₂¢ each.

WHOLESALE LOTS

We have about 50,000 coins we have accumulated. These coins will be sold in well mixed lots of from 100 to 2,000 coins per lot. Coins are mainly pre-war minors from every part of the world. Coins in each lot will generally include some silver, scarcer dates, coins of the 1800's, some scarcer or less frequent countries. We try to pull culls or damaged coins from lots. Each lot may be very different from the next because of the large overall variety available. If you are not satisfied with the selection or lot you receive, return same intact for a full refund. Your satisfaction guaranteed.

A Touch of Heraldry

THE GLAMOUR AND INTRIGUE OF OLD EUROPE IS BROUGHT TO LIFE FOR THOSE WHO WOULD ENJOY RESEARCHING.

We have a fine selection of original hard wax seals of hundreds of european castles and commercial houses of the 16th to 18th century.

These rich - high relief seals depict "Coat of Arms" and Trademarks in tremendous detail of some of the formost Barons, Dukes, Statesmen and Companies. Embossed in hard wax by the original mother seals. These are from the Baron Von Horcheg collection (Austrian and European)

Investing in Antique Jewelry
Richard Falkiner

First-class antiques have proved to be outstanding investments in an era when traditional forms of currency are vulnerable to economic depression. This book, designed for the investor-collector, shows why antique jewelry is particularly fascinating. In spite of the recent rise in prices, there is still a large amount of antique jewelry available to the intelligent collector with even a modest budget. Much of it, particularly the paste jewelry of the 18th and 19th centuries was ignored for years and is only now appreciated. The book provides a chapter by chapter outline of the history of jewelry from the earliest times and is illustrated with over 200 photos plus 16 pages in full color. Comments on past prices indicate trends for the future. A substantial technological section traces the etymology of terms used in jewelry. Mr. Falkiner heads the department of antique jewelry at Christie's in London.

Staffordshire Blue

W. L. Little

Staffordshire Blue was a by-product of the Industrial Revolution. Its history dates from 1780, when the growing wealth of the professional and mercantile classes, coinciding with a large increase in the population, had begun to create a market for a durable kind of colored earthenware. Covering the period from 1780 to 1850, this book contains all known information about this ceramic ware. Whether made in the Staffordshire potteries or not, the name has been given to all blue-and-white transfer-printed pottery. The book describes the introduction of transfer-printing, the technical development of Staffordshire Blue, the engravings and their sources, and the attribution of wares and their marks. The fully annotated illustrations include 108 marks and 129 photographs.

Art Treasures of the World

Frank Getlein, Editor

One hundred of the world's greatest treasures are here presented in their richness and variety, with enlightening and engaging commentary by Frank Getlein, art critic and political columnist. He brings to these treasures the rare combination of a knowledgeable sensitivity to artistic form and a highly developed sense of the historical and political realities surrounding many of them. He brings you a world of precious materials, the gold and stones that have always been treasured by man. But more than that it is a world in which such materials have been shaped into forms that delight the eye, the mind and the heart. It is a world that stretches from the dawn of civilization to this century, that spans the seas and unites all cultures. Some of the selections included are the Venus de Milo, the Mona Lisa, the Book of Hours of the Duke de Berry, the Cellini saltcellar, the Feathered Crown of Montezuma.

English Barometers
1680-1860

Nicholas Goodison

A thoroughly illustrated history of the development of the domestic mercurial barometer which gives not only technical explanation but information on a great number of makers and describes a representative selection of extant examples. Traces the mercurial barometer from its commercial introduction in 1680, through 1720 when it won acceptance over the water weatherglass, through the period after 1785 when vast numbers were sold as furniture, to its decline and replacement by the aneroid mechanism by 1860. Biographies of the most famous makers are included as well as a comprehensive index of makers and a bibliography. A pioneer work which will correct misleading and inadequate descriptions found in most reference books.

Traces the development of colored glass from the first Roman imports into Britain to the period of Art Nouveau. Shows how in the Middle Ages an industry grew up making pale green glass, a manufacture that survived to recent times; how, after long imitation of Venetian models, British craftsmen invented the famous Glass of Lead and went on to the use of colored decoration. Individual chapters deal with the twists of colored enamel in stems of glasses, the brilliant paints of the Barby family and others, the use of gilding, the development of blue, green and amethyst glass at Bristol, toys and novelties at Nailsea. Of interest to American collectors is the full treatment of 19th century pieces by Pellet, Tessie and Webb and the output of factories such as Bacchus, Hamis, Richardson and Whitefriars. Contains 96 pages of full color illustrations.

Investing in Pottery and Porcelain

Hugo Morely-Fletcher

Written for the "investor-collector" who wants financial appreciation as well as beauty. Written by the specialist in European ceramics and glass at Christie's in London, this book covers the products of the British Isles for the last 2½ centuries. It approaches the subject chronologically and surveys the whole field. It deals not only with old established favorites such as Chelsea, Worcester and Ralph Wood figures but analyzes the wares that have become popular recently. Special emphasis is given to neglected aspects of centers which have been long popular. The final chapter gives expert advice about collecting in general and warns against a number of pitfalls for the unwary or the inexperienced. Over 200 photographs are accompanied by detailed captions setting the piece in its historical context and indicating trends in market value; 16 pages in full color show objects of major importance. A Potter book (45) $7.95

Silver Boxes

Eric Delieb

This book pays special attention to subtler features particularly significant to the experienced collector. The author includes as a box any receptacle (except vessels) which possesses a lid, hinged or otherwise. Thus, not only are carefully selected snuffboxes and vinaigrettes shown but also a splendid array of "special purpose" boxes: religious, dental and medical, skipper and seal, Masonic, jewel caskets, sweetmeat boxes, and pomanders. A penetrating analysis of the roots and derivations of ornament is included. By applying comparative analysis Mr. Delieb evolves a startling theory about engraved decoration on boxes which in turn leads to an examination, never before attempted, of the genealogies of some of the famous Birmingham box makers: Nathaniel Mills, Matthew Linwood, Joseph Willmore and Joseph Taylor. Lavishly illustrated with 96 pages in full color.
